Wednesday 24th November
34th Week of Ordinary Time

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Remain faithful until death,
and I will give you the crown of life.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

PRAYER FOR THE DAY

God the Father,
help us to hear the call of Christ the King
and to follow in his service,
whose kingdom has no end;
for he reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, one glory.
Amen

FIRST READING (Daniel 5.1–6, 13–14, 16–17, 23–28)

King Belshazzar made a great festival for a thousand of his lords, and he was drinking wine in the presence of the thousand. Under the influence of the wine, Belshazzar commanded that they bring in the vessels of gold and silver that his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines might drink from them. So they brought in the vessels of gold and silver that had been taken out of the temple, the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines drank from them. They drank the wine and praised the gods of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone. Immediately the fingers of a human hand appeared and began writing on the plaster of the wall of the royal palace, next to the lampstand. The king was watching the hand as it wrote. Then the king's face turned pale, and his thoughts terrified him. His limbs gave way, and his knees knocked together. Then Daniel was brought in before the king.

The king said to Daniel, 'So you are Daniel, one of the exiles of Judah, whom my father the king brought from Judah?

I have heard of you that a spirit of the gods is in you, and that enlightenment, understanding, and excellent wisdom are found in you.

But I have heard that you can give interpretations and solve problems.

Now if you are able to read the writing and tell me its interpretation, you shall be clothed in purple, have a chain of gold around your neck, and rank third in the kingdom.'

Then Daniel answered in the presence of the king, 'Let your gifts be for yourself, or give your rewards to someone else!

Nevertheless, I will read the writing to the king and let him know the interpretation.

'You have exalted yourself against the Lord of heaven!

The vessels of his temple have been brought in before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines have been drinking wine from them.

You have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see or hear or know;

but the God in whose power is your very breath, and to whom belong all your ways, you have not honoured.

So from his presence the hand was sent and this writing was inscribed.

And this is the writing that was inscribed:
mene, mene, tekel, and parsin.

This is the interpretation of the matter:

mene, God has numbered the days of your kingdom and brought it to an end;
tekel, you have been weighed on the scales and found wanting;
peres, your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians.’

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Benedicite 1-2, 4-5)

The response to the Psalm is:

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Bless the Lord all you works of the Lord:
sing his praise and exalt him for ever.
Bless the Lord you heavens:
sing his praise and exalt him for ever. R/

Bless the Lord sun and moon:
bless the Lord you stars of heaven;
bless the Lord all rain and dew:
sing his praise and exalt him for ever. R/

Bless the Lord all winds that blow:
bless the Lord you fire and heat;
bless the Lord scorching wind and bitter cold:
sing his praise and exalt him for ever. R/

GOSPEL (Luke 21:12–19)

Jesus said to the crowd:

‘They will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name.’

This will give you an opportunity to testify.

So make up your minds not to prepare your defence in advance; for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict.

You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death.

You will be hated by all because of my name.

But not a hair of your head will perish.

By your endurance you will gain your souls.’
